D-Day Observance – First Hand
 Editor's Note: This article is reprinted from August to correct several errors.

A number of Legion Post 77 members made a trip to England and France during the first part of June to mark the 65th anniversary of D-Day. Visiting dignitaries made attending the actual ceremonies impossible for Bob and Judy Boettcher and Bob Boettcher (L) and Gene O'Connell in France.

Gene O'Connell, but it worked out fine anyway. Since O'Connell, part of the 3rd wave on D-Day, helped liberate the village of Sainteny in 1944, they visited there instead. The trio was treated very well by the rural French citizens during their visit.
